

Senior Executive, Executive and Senior Management Leave and Associated Arrangements Policy

Section 1 - Policy Purpose

(1) This Policy assists Senior Management, Executive and Senior Executive staff to manage periods of their leave of any duration and of any type, including international University business, and the associated arrangements to ensure the effective and seamless administration, good management, and governance of the University and its organisational units.

Section 2 - Scope of Policy

(2) This Policy applies to staff employed by the University under either an Executive Employment Agreement or a Senior Management Employment Agreement.

Section 3 - Policy Statement

(3) In approving periods of Senior Management, Executive and Senior Executive leave of any type, it is the expectation of the University that the staff member prior to commencing leave has notified their nominated supervisor and made suitable arrangements including a handover with the acting assignee to ensure the operations and the good management of the University can continue in their absence.

Section 4 - Acting Assignments

(4) Where a the staff member is proceeding on leave or is attending to internal University business or at an international conference, of any duration with the approval of the University, consideration must be given to the nature and type of coverage to exist in their absence. This consideration must occur in discussion with their nominated supervisor.

Section 5 - Acting Salary Arrangements

(5) Where a Senior Management, Executive or Senior Executive staff member acts in a higher level position, either on full or partial duties they will be eligible for an acting salary where the period exceeds twenty (20) working days, including public holidays.

(6) Where a staff member employed under the ACU Staff Enterprise Agreement 2022-2025 will be performing a Senior Management acting assignment, the staff member will be eligible for an acting salary for the period consistent with the provisions of the ACU Staff Enterprise Agreement 2022-2025.

(7) The applicable allowance in each case of an acting assignment of the staff member is discussed by the nominated supervisor with the Chief People Officer.

Section 6 - Governance and University Delegations

(8) Certain Senior Management, Executive and Senior Executive positions carry governance and University delegations either assigned to the position or as a result of holding accreditations which will need to be assigned accordingly, i.e. the role of Corporation Secretary. This may mean that dependent on requirements a delegation may not always be performed by the acting assignee where they do not hold the relevant accreditations.

(9) The assignment of who performs which delegations must be discussed with their nominated supervisor and allocated, and, where necessary the Vice-Chancellor and President must be informed of the nominated assignee and whom will undertake the relevant governance and University delegations.

Section 7 - University Notification of Absence and Delegations

(10) Senior Executive and Executive staff are expected to advise the whole University via email of their absence and who is the acting assignee. This may include advice of relevant delegations which are outside the norm.

(11) The notification to the wider University should normally occur 1 (one) week prior to the staff member proceeding on leave.
