

Scholarships and Awards Policy

Section 1 - Purpose

(1) The Scholarships and Awards Policy establishes the principles for determining the general rules for the award and administration of student scholarships and awards funded by; the Australian Government, Australian Catholic University (ACU) and donors.

Section 2 - Policy Scope

(2) This Policy applies to scholarships and awards administered by Australian Catholic University.

(3) The Policy excludes:

- a. Sponsorships as defined in the Student Fees Policy;
- b. Outbound Sponsorships as defined in the Outbound Sponsorship Policy;
- c. Graduate Research Scholarships as defined in the Research Training Program Scholarship Policy; and
- d. staff scholarships administered by People and Capability; and
- e. administrative arrangements for non-financial conditions that are associated with a scholarship, such as internships or placements.

Section 3 - Principles

ACU will establish scholarships and awards to:

(4) enhance the recruitment, retention or success of students by;

- a. rewarding academic and community engagement excellence;
- b. widening participation from groups which are underrepresented in Higher Education; and
- c. aligning with the strategic direction set out in Vision 2033 and the Long-Term Business Plan.

(5) ACU's scholarships and awards will:

- a. align with the ACU Mission, Identity and Values;
- b. advance the priorities of the scholarship strategy as determined by the Scholarships and Fees Steering Committee; and
- c. will be awarded based on merit and / or equity.

(6) Scholarships and awards:

- a. are awarded at the discretion of the University;
- b. are subject to funding being available; and
- c. can be associated with or named after donors.

- (7) To ensure equity and transparency in the administrative process, scholarships and awards must:
- in the case of scholarships, be subject to application or subject to an internal selection process where applicable;
  - specify eligibility and selection criteria;
  - in the case of scholarships, be subject to the standard scholarship application period(s) endorsed by the Provost and Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic), unless an exception is approved by the Academic Registrar;
  - in the case of scholarships, be published in a scholarship browser on the ACU website;
  - be awarded through open and accountable selection processes; and
  - not be awarded if it is considered that there is no candidate that meets the criteria for selection.

Section 4 - Definitions

(8) Terms used in this Policy and Administration of Scholarships and Awards Procedure are consistent with the Glossary of Student and Course Terms. In addition, the following words and expressions have the meanings listed below:

Term	Definition
Award	An award is a financial or other specified reward which may be awarded to a student for their academic and/or other achievement/s while studying at the University.
Equity scholarship	An equity scholarship is awarded to a student to assist them in their studies by providing financial and/or other relevant support, based on demonstrated financial need or other educational disadvantage. Additional eligibility criteria may be considered.
Merit scholarship	A merit scholarship is awarded to a student to support their studies by providing financial and/or other relevant support based on merit. Criteria for these scholarships may include academic and/or other merit.
Scholarship rules	Scholarship rules define the eligibility criteria, selection process, value and the ongoing eligibility and progression requirements of a scholarship.
Discount	A discount is a reduction of the fees payable by a student or partner but, unlike a waiver, can only be a partial reduction.
Scholarship	A scholarship is awarded to attract, retain or support a prospective or current student. A scholarship is awarded based on merit, financial need or educational disadvantage.
Eligibility	Applicants must meet specific criteria to be receive an award of a scholarship. Currently, students may apply for a scholarship without being eligible. In some cases, a student will become eligible over the duration of their study. Prior to awards being offered, eligibility is confirmed for each applicant. For example, students may need to enrol in a specific course, attend a specific campus or achieve or maintain an academic result that meets or exceeds a predetermined threshold. Some scholarships require ongoing progression review across the academic year/s and may require students to maintain a certain GPA to retain the scholarship.
Recipient	An eligible applicant that has received an award from of a scholarship. The act of receiving an award transitions students from an applicant to a recipient.
Unique recipient	The number of unique students that are awarded a scholarship in a given year.
Multi-recipient scholarship	A scholarship offering where more than one scholarship is available in a given year and can be awarded to multiple students in one year. ACU predominantly provides scholarships that are multi-recipient offerings.
Single recipient scholarship	A scholarship offering where one scholarship is available in a given year and is awarded to one student.

Section 9 - Restrictions

(29) A student may hold more than one ACU scholarship, in addition to any Commonwealth Scholarship, concurrently, unless otherwise specified in the scholarship rules.

(30) Students who are continuing or fixed-term staff and are eligible for study support in accordance with ACU's Study

Support for Staff Policy are not eligible for any scholarship covered by this Policy.

(31) Students may not defer any scholarship unless the rules explicitly allow this under certain circumstances.

Section 10 - Ongoing Eligibility Requirements of a Scholarship

(32) Where a scholarship is awarded 'for the length of the course', the duration will be calculated on the basis of the standard course requirements, as specified in the course rules, and/or up to a maximum duration negotiated with the donor as specified in the conditions of the scholarship. In the case of a double degree, unless the scholarship is awarded for the duration of both components, the scholarship will be for the standard duration of a single undergraduate pass degree only.

(33) Where a scholarship is awarded for a continuing period of more than one semester, the recipient must be enrolled in the course at the census date of subsequent study periods, to maintain the scholarship.

(34) The conditions for the continuation of a scholarship will include a requirement that students must gain:

- a. a minimum grade of Pass in all units in which they were enrolled in the previous study period; or
- b. in the case of equity scholarships, a minimum grade of Pass in at least two-thirds of credit points in which they were enrolled in the previous study period unless otherwise specified in the scholarship rules.

(35) Exceptional personal circumstances, supported by documentary evidence, may be taken into consideration if the student has not satisfied the requirements as set out in clause (3) of this policy.

(36) Where the conditions of a scholarship specify that the recipient be enrolled at a particular campus or in a specific course, the scholarship will be cancelled if the recipient no longer studies at that campus or in that course.

(37) If the recipient of a scholarship fails to comply with any condition of that scholarship, the scholarship may be:

- a. cancelled; or
- b. where permitted under the scholarship rules, suspended until such time that the conditions are met and the student returns to good standing.

(38) The conditions for any individual scholarship may specify that, in the event that the recipient withdraws from or fails to make satisfactory progress in their course of study, or fails to satisfy other requirements for continuation of the scholarship, the balance of the monies otherwise payable to the recipient will either:

- a. revert to the fund; or
- b. be awarded to the next eligible applicant; in that case:
  - i. the amount of the scholarship available will be the original value less any amount already paid to the first recipient; and
  - ii. the duration of the scholarship will be the normal duration less any period during which it was held by the first recipient.

(39) The recipient of a scholarship awarded for a continuing period of more than one semester may apply for a suspension of the scholarship if they interrupt their course of study and providing the suspension is permitted under the scholarship rules,. If the recipient does not resume their course within one academic year, the scholarship will be cancelled. Only one period of suspension/deferment is allowable per scholarship.

Section 11 - Financial Matters

(40) Endowed Funds (philanthropic) will be managed and administered in line with the Endowment Management and Spending Policy.

(41) Monies payable to the recipient of a scholarship will be paid within 30 working days of the relevant census dates.

(42) Where the closing date for applications has been extended beyond the census date, monies payable to the recipient of a scholarship will normally be paid within either 30 working days of the census date of the relevant study period or 20 working days from the date of offer, whichever is later.

(43) Normally the value of a scholarship will be paid in equal instalments, with a minimum of one payment after the census date of each semester for the duration of the award.

(44) Unless otherwise stated, the amount of each scholarship payment is calculated based on full-time enrolment, that is, 0.375 EFTSL per semester. If the student undertakes a lesser load, payments will be made on a pro rata basis subject to the conditions of the scholarship. Enrolment status is normally not relevant in the case for the payment of an award.

(45) Scholarship payments may affect student's eligibility for financial support by the Australian Government. Recipients must be advised that it is their responsibility to ascertain any such impacts.

Section 12 - Appeals

(46) Any student wishing to appeal a scholarship decision may do so in accordance with the Student Appeals Policy.

Section 13 - Record Keeping

(47) An Annual Report will be provided to the Provost and Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) (Provost) for noting by the Academic Board in accordance with clause 27 of the Administration of Scholarships and Awards Procedure.

(48) Recipients of all scholarships, or awards with a value of $1,000 or more must be recorded on the Student Management System.

Section 14 - Saving Clause

(49) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Policy, the Academic Registrar may, in any case deemed appropriate, vary, dispense with or suspend any requirement of or prescription in this Policy or in the conditions for individual scholarships or awards. Any such action will be reported to the Academic Board annually.
