Admission to Coursework Programs Policy

Section 1 - Policy Statement

(1) The Admission to Coursework Programs Policy provides the framework for admission to all coursework programs and units at Australian Catholic University (ACU).

Section 2 - Policy Scope

(2) This Policy applies to admission to all undergraduate, graduate entry and postgraduate coursework programs, and non-award study of units, whether by application through a Tertiary Admissions Centre or directly to Australian Catholic University. It applies to domestic and international admission to both Commonwealth-supported places and fee-paying places.

Section 3 - Definitions

(3) Terms used in this Policy and the associated procedure are consistent with the Glossary of Student and Course Terms. In addition, the following words and expressions have the meanings listed below:

Term	Definition
Adjustment factors	additional points that may be used in combination with an applicant's Australian Tertiary Admission Rank (ATAR) to derive a person's course Selection Rank. Adjustments do not change an applicant's ATAR, but change their Selection Rank for a particular course or courses.
Admission pathway	any one of the options available to a prospective student that will enable them to meet the entry requirements of their chosen course(s).
Admission prerequisite	a requirement that must be met by an applicant in order to be eligible for consideration for admission to the course.
ATAR related thresholds	1. Lowest ATAR to which an offer was made: the lowest unadjusted ATAR of an applicant to which an offer of a place was made in the relevant year or year-to-date. 2. Lowest Selection Rank to which an offer was made: the lowest Selection Rank of an applicant to which an offer of a place was made in the relevant year or year-to-date (including the consideration of any adjustments the applicant may have been eligible for). 3. Minimum Selection Rank required for consideration to enter in the next intake: Where a threshold minimum Selection Rank must be achieved to be considered for admission to a course or institution. 4. Guaranteed Entry ATAR (or Selection Rank): where achievement of a specified ATAR or Selection Rank (as appropriate) will guarantee acceptance into a course or institution, subject to any non-ATAR criteria being met, such as a prerequisite study or English language proficiency.
Audit	where a participant is permitted to attend a unit on payment of the prescribed fee but does not complete assessment requirements.
Course	an approved program of study leading to an accredited higher education award of the University.

Term	Definition
At school offer	where an offer of enrolment is made to a current secondary school student prior to release of ATARs or equivalent (e.g. OP in Queensland, IB) Such offers may be conditional on other requirements being met, such as successful completion of a Senior Secondary Certificate of Education, prerequisite study, or achievement of a specified minimum Selection Rank.
Non-award	refers to individual units undertaken which do not count towards an award program at ACU.
Offer	formal notification from the University or the relevant Tertiary Admissions Centre on behalf of the University offering a place in a nominated course.
Offer rounds	refers to the series of dates on which offers of higher education places are issued to prospective students by the tertiary admission centres and institutions throughout the year.
Recommended Studies	subjects which are not a requirement for entry, but which applicants are recommended to have completed to assist them to undertake a course.
Tertiary Admissions Centre (TAC)	the admission authority established in each Australian state / territory to coordinate the admission processes of participating institutions for undergraduate and, in some cases, postgraduate courses. The authorities are: • NSW / ACT: Universities Admissions Centre (UAC) • Qld: Queensland Tertiary Admissions Centre (QTAC) • Vic: Victorian Tertiary Admissions Centre (VTAC)

Section 4 - Principles

(4) Australian Catholic University has admission standards that:

a. are grounded in the ACU Mission, Identity and Values and guided by the strategic priorities of the University;
b. are consistent with the Australian Qualifications Framework, and set in accordance with the Higher Education Standards Framework (Threshold Standards) 2021;
c. are clear, concise, equitable and transparent;
d. ensure that students have adequate prior knowledge and skills, including English language proficiency, to succeed in the program; and
e. support the University in achieving strategic goals.

(5) The University will assess all applicants through fair, equitable and documented policies and procedure and defined admission criteria.

(6) The University reserves the right to withdraw an offer or cancel the enrolment of a student where an offer is made on the basis of incomplete, inaccurate, fraudulent or misleading information supplied by the applicant or certifying authority. Any fees paid may be forfeited.

Section 5 - Entry Requirements

(7) Academic Board will:

a. approve the minimum entry requirements to be met for entry to any award course;
b. approve the minimum eligibility rank for undergraduate courses (See Schedule 1);
c. approve entry requirements for individual courses in accordance with the Course Accreditation, Amendment and Review Policy;
d. ensure that the entry requirements for any course will be as consistent as possible across different State / Territory jurisdictions and / or campuses.

(8) Different minimum selection ranks may apply for the same course offered on different campuses due to varying levels of demand.

(9) An Executive Dean may apply to the Academic Registrar and the Provost to vary the minimum eligibility rank for a particular program.

(10) For the purpose of admission to ACU, the minimum eligibility rank is calculated using the unadjusted ATAR or equivalent supplemented by any adjustment factors allocated under approved schemes outlined in Section 15.

Section 6 - Availability of Places

(11) The Provost and Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) is responsible for determining the allocation of Commonwealth-Supported Places (CSP) across all courses.

(12) The commencing places available in all coursework award programs, both CSP and fee-paying, in any given year or semester, will be determined by the Provost in accordance with the enrolment plan and Enrolment Plan Policy.

Section 7 - Authority for Admission to Coursework Programs

(13) The authority to admit students to coursework programs is delegated to the Academic Registrar for domestic applicants and the Pro Vice-Chancellor (Global) for international applicants.

(14) Designated officers are authorised to act on behalf of the University, in accordance with approved delegations, to admit applicants to these programs.

Section 8 - Administration of Admission Processes

(15) Administration of domestic admission processes is the responsibility of Student Administration, via the Tertiary Admissions Centres and Direct Admissions Services, Student Administration.

(16) Administration of international admission processes is the responsibility of the International Admissions, Global.

(17) Applications will be administered in accordance with this Policy and related policies, procedures and protocols.

Section 9 - Application Process

(18) Applications through a Tertiary Admissions Centre (TAC) must adhere to the processes, closing dates and payment schedules published by that TAC.

(19) Direct applications to ACU must adhere to the processes, closing dates and payment schedules published by ACU.

(20) To gain entry to a course an applicant must:

a. have applied through the relevant TAC or directly to ACU, in accordance with required timelines and the application procedures for that course;
b. have satisfied all minimum entry requirements of the University;
c. if intending to undertake study on a student visa, satisfy the University that they meet the Genuine Student requirements of the relevant Australian Government department;

d. meet any specific admission prerequisite requirements for the course, as approved in the relevant course rules;
e. have been offered a place within the course and enrol within the prescribed time.

(21) Domestic applicants must have completed Year 12 or equivalent, or be 18 years of age or over in the year of commencing their studies.

(22) Applicants may also be considered on the basis of demonstrated equivalent knowledge, work and / or life experience.

(23) The University may refuse admission to a qualified applicant if:

a. the limit on available places is exceeded; or
b. there are not appropriate and sufficient personnel, resources or number of applicants to enable the course to be offered; or
c. there are other restrictions or limitations applying to the course; or
d. the applicant has been subject to termination or exclusion from ACU or another university; or
e. other matters that the University considers relevant to an applicant's reasonable prospect of success.

Section 10 - English Language Proficiency

(24) Proficiency in English is required for entry to all courses. Proficiency may be specified differently in various State / Territory jurisdictions.

(25) Non-current year 12 applicants without a previous pass in Year 12 English must attain the equivalent by satisfying approved alternative criteria. These criteria include English completed as part of any senior secondary school studies deemed by ACU to be equivalent to Australian year 12. Approved alternatives are outlined in the relevant state-based TAC English Proficiency schedules.

(26) Applicants whose first language is not English will be required to demonstrate their English proficiency, as set out in the English Language Proficiency for Admission Procedure. Any such English language proficiency result must have been completed no earlier than two years prior to commencement of the course of study to which the student seeks admission.

(27) English language proficiency standards may be specified by the professional registration body associated with a course in a particular discipline.

Section 11 - Other Admission Prerequisites

(28) Where an admission prerequisite includes the requirement of interview, folio, audition or other performance or demonstration of practical skill or other attribute, an applicant must comply with the criteria and directions provided in relation to any such requirement.

(29) Where submission of additional information is required, for example regarding relevant experience or previous study, an applicant must comply with the directions provided in relation to any such requirement.

(30) Where entry to a course has a prerequisite of completion of an appropriate degree or other qualification, such degree or other qualification must normally have been completed within the preceding 10 years.

(31) An applicant may only be admitted to a course on the basis of completion of a prerequisite degree or other qualification more than 10 years previously:

a. on the basis of subsequent development and life or work experience in the discipline, and as approved by the Head of School or equivalent or nominee; or
b. as provided for in the course rules for that program.

Section 12 - Adjustment Factors

(32) Academic Board may approve the categories of adjustment factors available for admission to ACU.

(33) Academic Board will approve annually the maximum number of adjustment factors than may be applied to an applicant's selection rank in respect of any undergraduate course.

(34) The University offers adjustment factors for applicants to undergraduate courses, as detailed in Schedule 5.

(35) The Adjustment factors normally involve additional points added to an applicant's ATAR or equivalent, for the purposes of determining eligibility for admission to courses offered by ACU only.

(36) The allocation of adjustment factors does not affect an applicant's ATAR but supplements the applicant's rank for the purpose of assessing their eligibility for admission to the course. A rank is not the same as an ATAR and one additional point does not equate to one ATAR point.

(37) Adjustment factors are also allocated to applicants under the University's Equity and Access Schemes, as detailed Schedule 6 of this policy.

(38) Where adjustment factors are granted for similar reasons, a cap on the number of additional points will apply, as detailed in Schedules 5 and 6 of this policy. An overall maximum number of additional points is applied to an applicant's selection rank from the combination of all adjustment factors they are eligible for.

Section 13 - Basis of Selection - Undergraduate

(39) With the exception of equity and / or specific entry places offered in accordance with Section 15 of this Policy, the selection of applicants for admission is based on academic merit and satisfaction of any other admission requirements.

(40) Where the entry requirements include satisfying criteria associated with interview, written statement, folio, audition or other demonstration of defined attributes, selection is based on both academic merit and those criteria.

(41) Non-current Year 12 applicants are assessed on the basis of their Year 12 or other studies and are given an equivalent ranking to enable comparable selection for courses requiring a Selection Rank.

Section 14 - Basis of Selection - Postgraduate

(42) The selection of applicants for admission is based on the satisfaction of the minimum entry requirements for postgraduate study as identified in Schedule 3 and any other admission requirements as defined in the course rules.

Section 15 - Entry, Access and Equity Schemes

(43) The University has established a number of access and equity schemes which provide for consideration of additional criteria in assessing applicants and their potential for success in university study. These schemes are identified in Schedule 5.

(44) Specific entry provisions may also apply for Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander applicants. These applicants will be referred to the Indigenous Higher Education Unit, within First Peoples, on the campus at which they wish to study.

(45) Applicants whose educational qualifications do not satisfy the requirements for admission to a particular course but who have equivalent, demonstrated knowledge, skills and / or competencies, may be granted admission to the course, subject to approval by the Academic Registrar, in consultation with the relevant Course Adviser, Head of School or equivalent.

Section 16 - Offer

(46) All applicants will be advised in writing regarding the outcome of their application for a place either by ACU, or by the relevant TAC. A verbal indication regarding eligibility is not a formal offer of place and is not binding.

(47) All offers of a place will specify the course and / or specialisation (where applicable), funding status (CSP or fee-paying), study mode and location for which the offer is made.

(48) All offers of a place will provide links to relevant policies, procedures and guidelines relating to enrolment, academic integrity, tuition fees, charges and refunds.

(49) All offers will detail any particular conditions of enrolment and / or participation in the course, such as health requirements for students undertaking clinical work, requirements for security checks, particular requirements for work placements and any language requirements.

(50) All offers of a place will be conditional upon the provision of proof of completion of admission requirements and / or upon other factors detailed in the letter of offer.

(51) Failure to meet any condition of offer by the specified date may result in the withdrawal and cancellation of the offer.

(52) Students may only undertake study in the course in the study mode and / or at the location for which an offer is made. Individual units may only be taken in a different mode / location if approved by the Course Adviser, or as documented in the relevant Course Enrolment Guide.

(53) An offer of a place in a coursework program will remain valid for one academic year unless otherwise specified in the offer letter.

(54) Once an offer of a place has been accepted through enrolment via the student system, the student will be subject to the Academic Regulations and other student-related policies, procedures and guidelines.

Section 17 - Deferment of Offer

(55) An applicant who receives an offer of a place in a coursework program at ACU can defer commencing that course for up to one year, unless the Executive Dean determines otherwise for a particular program. Executive Deans may choose not to grant deferments in any course or any admission cycle.

(56) In exceptional circumstances, and as approved by the designated officer, a student may apply to defer for up to two years. Documentary evidence detailing the circumstances will be required to support the application.

(57) An applicant whose application to defer admission has been approved will receive written confirmation of their deferment and be guaranteed a place, in the following academic year, in the course and at the location for which the original offer was made, provided the course is available to commencing students.

(58) Where an applicant's deferred place is for a program that is subsequently discontinued or withdrawn after an offer has been made, the applicant will be advised of any alternative program, or programs, available.

(59) Deferment in an undergraduate course will not be granted where the applicant intends to undertake another course of tertiary study at ACU or any other university or post-secondary education provider during the period of deferment.

(60) A deferment will lapse if the applicant does not apply to take up the deferred place or the applicant does not complete enrolment requirements by the date specified by the University.

(61) If a deferment lapses, the applicant will be required to make a new application for admission according to the standard admission application processes at the time.

(62) Where a student wishes to be considered for a place in a different course, they can apply for an offer to a different course via the Alternate Offer for Commencing Students process. Students must meet all eligibility requirements to receive an offer for the alternative course.

(63) Deferment of a place is not available for one-year, end-on Honours courses.

Section 18 - Admission to Honours Programs

(64) To be eligible for entry to an Honours program a student must have:

a. a minimum GPA of 5.0; and
b. satisfy the requirements set out in the relevant course rules.

Approval for Proposed Area of Study

(65) Offers of admission to a Bachelor Honours course will:

a. require the approval of the National Head of School or nominee; and
b. will only be made where the student's proposed area of study aligns with a demonstrated capacity for Honours research and supervision within the School; and
c. will be subject to Section 6 of this Policy.

Section 19 - Transfers

Transfer Categories

(66) An ACU student may apply to transfer:

a. from one program to another program at the same level, offered at the same or another campus;
b. from a double degree program to a component single degree of that program;
c. from a certificate or higher-level program to another program at the same level or a bachelor degree level course, offered at the same or another campus;
d. within a program, from one campus to another campus;
e. between postgraduate program specialisations or between nested postgraduate programs courses.

Eligibility Criteria

(67) Applications for transfer are determined on the basis of academic merit. To be eligible for consideration for a transfer a student must have:

a. successfully completed at least two units within the program at ACU in which the applicant is enrolled; and
b. in all cases, have satisfied all admissions prerequisites and any other entry requirements for the program to which the applicant is seeking to transfer; and
c. achieved a passing GPA, or hold a selection rank at least equivalent to the published rank for entry to that program from the previous year's main offer round at the given campus.

(68) Students seeking transfer to the undergraduate courses identified in Schedule 1 of the Admission to Coursework Programs Procedure, will be subject to a quota of available places.

(69) Students seeking a campus transfer within their current program will be approved subject to place availability.

(70) Where a student has yet to receive a result for any unit within their current program, they can apply for an offer to a different course via the Alternate Offer for Commencing Students process. Students must meet all eligibility requirements to receive an offer for the alternative course.

(71) Where a student has completed one award and seeks entry to another, they must follow the standard admission application process to apply for the second course.

Application to Transfer

(72) An application for transfer must be lodged with Admissions via the prescribed process and by the published closing date.

(73) Applications will be assessed in accordance with the eligibility criteria outlined in clause 67.

(74) Offers will be made only where places are available.

(75) Transfers are only available from the commencement of a standard study period.

(76) Domestic students who are unsuccessful in their application for transfer may apply for admission to their chosen course of study through the general admission process via the state TAC.

Section 20 - Students Gaining Permanent Resident Status

(77) An international student who gains Permanent Resident status, and submits the relevant form and supporting documentation, will be transferred to:

a. a CSP in the case of an undergraduate student; or
b. a domestic fee-paying place in the case of a postgraduate student. If CSP are available within the postgraduate course, the student will be transferred to a CSP.

(78) If the application is submitted before the census date in a study period, the transfer will be effective from the beginning of that study period.

(79) If the application is submitted after the census date for the study period, the student will remain liable for fees at the international student fee rate for the remainder of the study period and the transfer will take place for the following study period.

Section 21 - Pathway Programs

(80) ACU offers approved entry pathway programs for domestic and international students. These are listed in Schedule 8.

Section 22 - Applicants Subject to Termination or Exclusion

(81) An applicant whose enrolment at ACU, or another university, has been terminated on the grounds of unsatisfactory academic performance will not be considered for admission into an award course, or individual unit(s) within an award course until at least two semesters have elapsed from the date of termination.

(82) Applicants for admission following termination of enrolment at ACU or another University must demonstrate changed circumstances which will allow for greater likelihood of success in their course of study.

(83) An applicant whose enrolment at this or another university has been cancelled under any disciplinary provisions will not be considered for admission into any course or individual unit(s) before the exclusion has been lifted or the duration of the exclusion has expired.

(84) In cases where no specific period of exclusion has been identified, an applicant will be not considered for admission until at least two standard study periods have elapsed from the date of exclusion.

(85) No academic credit will be granted for any study or other learning or practical experience undertaken during the period of exclusion.

(86) A person who wishes to return to ACU following a period of termination or exclusion on academic or disciplinary grounds must follow the relevant direct application process.

Section 23 - Units Studied on a Non-award Basis

Admission to Study Individual Units on a Non-award Basis

(87) Subject to a place being available and subject to approval by the Head of School or equivalent, or nominee, the Designated Officer may admit an applicant to study units on a fee-paying, non-award basis in any study period.

(88) Applicants must meet unit requirements and their enrolment will be subject to the provisions of the Academic Regulations. A student enrolled on this basis will be formally assessed in the units in which they enrol.

(89) If the student subsequently applies for and is granted admission to a course at the University, units successfully completed on a non-award basis may be credited to that course, subject to the Academic Regulations and the relevant course rules.

Admission to Undertake Cross-Institutional Studies

(90) Subject to a place being available and subject to approval by the Head of School or equivalent, or nominee, the Designated Officer may admit an applicant to study one or more units as a cross-institutional student, for credit towards an award of another institution.

(91) Cross-institutional students must meet unit prerequisites and their enrolment will be subject to the provisions of the Academic Regulations. A student enrolled on this basis will be formally assessed in the units in which they are enrolled.

Admission to Undertake Study Abroad and Exchange Studies

(92) Subject to a place being available and subject to approval by the Head of School or equivalent, or nominee, the Designated Officer may admit an applicant to study units on a study abroad or exchange basis.

(93) Applicants must meet unit prerequisites requirements, together with the English language proficiency requirements identified in the English Language Proficiency for Admission Procedure. Enrolment will be subject to the provisions of the Academic Regulations.

(94) A student enrolled on this basis will be formally assessed in the units in which they enrol. If the student subsequently applies for and is granted admission to a course at the University, units successfully completed on a study abroad or exchange basis may be credited to that course, subject to the Academic Regulations and the relevant course rules.

Auditing Units

(95) Subject to a place being available, a Head of School or equivalent, or nominee, may permit an applicant to audit one or more units for the prescribed audit fee. Participants who wish to have an audited unit assessed must, by the prescribed date, apply to undertake the unit on a non-award basis, comply with enrolment procedures and pay the non-award tuition fee.

Units Including a Practical Placement Component

(96) An applicant will not be offered a place on a non-award, cross-institutional, study abroad or auditing basis in any professional experience unit or unit that includes a practical placement.

Section 24 - Withdrawal of Offer and / or Cancellation of Enrolment

(97) In the event that any error in assessment of the application and / or making of an offer is identified, ACU will advise the applicant of the error and potential academic implications and will take the following action:

a. honour the offer made to the applicant if the applicant agrees with this outcome and there are no prerequisite / regulatory body factors that prohibit such action; or
b. offer the applicant a place in any other course to which they are eligible and in which a place is available, provided the applicant is able to commence that course no later than the end of the second week of semester; or
c. if no such place can be offered, withdraw the offer of a place and reimburse any fees paid by the applicant.

(98) If an offer is made and results or other information is subsequently found to be inaccurate, through no fault of the applicant, the University will act as follows:

a. if an applicant's selection rank is higher than that originally awarded, the University will endeavour to admit the applicant to the course for which the applicant had expressed a preference and to which the correct entry rank would have earned admission, provided that:
    i. the applicant is able to commence the course no later than the end of the second week of the study period.
    ii. when the error is identified, a place is still available in that course; and

b. if an applicant's selection rank is lower than that originally awarded, the University reserves the right to withdraw an offer at any time within the first two weeks of the semester for which an offer was made and accepted. If an offer is withdrawn, the University will consider the applicant for a place in a course for which the applicant is qualified, provided that:
    i. a place is still available in that course; and
    ii. the applicant is able to commence that course no later than the end of the second week of the study period.

(99) If an error under clause (97)a. or b. is identified after the second week of the study period, any offer made will be deferred to the next available commencing study period.

(100) Where a new offer is made under clause (97) or (98), the offer will specify a deadline for application for deferment in the new course, if applicable.

(101) The University may withdraw an offer to any suitably qualified applicant where a course has been suspended or discontinued. In such a case, the University will consider the applicant for a place in an alternative course or refund any fee paid.

(102) The Academic Registrar will withdraw an offer and / or cancel enrolment if an applicant is found to have been admitted on the basis of incomplete, inaccurate, fraudulent or misleading information, in accordance with the Student Conduct Policy. Fees paid may be forfeited.

Section 25 - Appeals and Complaints

(103) Appeals and complaints regarding admissions decisions will be dealt with as follows:

a. for current ACU students via the Student Appeals Policy.
b. for applicants who are not current ACU students via the Student and Public Complaints Policy.

Section 26 - Savings Clause

(104) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Policy, the Academic Registrar may, in any case deemed appropriate, vary, dispense with or suspend any requirements of this Policy, associated procedures, appendices or schedules. Any action taken under this clause will be reported to the Courses and Academic Quality Committee.

Section 27 - Schedules
